

As a flight attendant, I have come across many passengers screaming on top of their lung talking into their cell phone. I would certainly not want to hear their conversation, as a working crew or a passenger. It is also a safety issue having cell phone inflight! It's difficult as is trying to get passenger's full attention during safety videos and announcements. I cannot imagine another distraction readily available to them anytime during the flight!! Please....NO CELL PHONES!!